

VANCOUVER ASSOCIATION OF LAW LIBRARIES - JUNE SEMINAR

Knowledge Sharing, Transfer Strategies, & the Generational Shift with Jenny Lewis & Michelle Sharp

The Vancouver Association of Law Libraries is pleased to announce the final seminar of the year, on Wednesday, June 5th, at the Shangri-La Hotel. This workshop could not come at a better time for the VALL community as there have been -- and will be -- many shifts in our working environment: new positions opening, transfers, closures, merging firms, climbing of the corporate ladder, and yes, even retirement.

Jenny Lewis & Michelle Sharp will share knowledge transfer strategies that will ease employee transitions in law libraries. They will share methodology that can be easily implemented in your law library to mitigate knowledge loss risk. Organizations need to proactively explore and implement ways to share and transfer, explicit and tacit, knowledge as part of everyday practice to ensure business continuity.

The seminar offers value both to managers of law libraries with transitioning staff, and to staff of all levels interested in strategies that will keep their library in the best possible state as they transition to a new position or into retirement. For more information they invite you to visit their website www.retirewithintention.com and connect through Facebook and Twitter.
