

VANCOUVER ASSOCIATION OF LAW LIBRARIES LUNCH MEETING

Revised Program: U.S. Legal Research

Grace Pastine of the B.C. Civil Liberties Association will offer a Canadian overview of the US court system, emphasizing how a researcher should navigate case law from the separate but interrelated federal and state court systems in the United States. She will also talk about locating and noting up American case law and other primary legal resources, such as statutes and regulations, and using secondary resources such as treatises, legal encyclopedias and case digests to maximum benefit. .
